Q.17. Read the following passage carefully and answer the question given below :

(2×4=8)

Gandhiji's greatest strength was his belief in God. He fought for the freedom of India because he used to say that the best way to serve God was to serve his people. Therefore when he worked for the happiness of Indians, he was also making God happy. Many times people would put a straight question to him asking him to give proof that there is God and how we can know him. Gandhiji would admit frankly that he could not show God to anyone because his presence could be felt in the heart only. He was however a lover of God and could not live without him. He once said "If you donot give me air and water I can still live, but if you take away my belief in God, I shall die immediately.

Questions:

(i) What was Gandhiji's greaterst belief?

(ii) What is the best way to serve God according to Gandhiji?

(iii) Where could God's presence be felt?

(iv) What would happen to Gandhiji if his belief in God was taken away from him?
